Luca Paretto is curated at a family run winery whose vineyards are found in the foothills of the Alps in Italy's prestigious Treviso region. Featuring breathtaking views of the surrounding valleys, Treviso is celebrated for its beautiful backdrop and charming vineyards that produce Italy's only authentic proseccos.

The vineyard has been designed to infuse every grape with the hill's unique soil and microclimate, resulting in distinctive, exemplary wines. From vine to final product, Luca Paretto wines are cared for with the utmost passion and attention. The winemaker carefully coaxes exotic flavors from each harvest to produce a uniquely lush, fruit forward prosecco that satisfy those who crave exceptional wine.

STYLE

LØVO appears soft yellow with lime green hues and fine bubbles that produce understated aromas of green apple and peach with floral notes. It has a soft, but fresh, acidity on the mouth and the hint of fruit is delightfully pleasurable for those who enjoy exotic fruit on the palate.

TASTING
NOTES

The hint of fresh fruit and crispness of this wine makes LØVO an ideal drink to enhance a lighter fish or vegetable dish served before an entrée, such as seared scallops or tomato tartlets.
