

PAVO REAL Red wine

A Mexican Heritage

The Mexican father and leader of the Independence Priest Miguel Hidalgo harvested wine grapes in the 19th Century in the same land in which the grapes that produce this wine are cultivated today.

Pavo Real, Spanish for Peacock is a unique wine, an assembly of originally European varieties. These grape varieties are cultivated in higher elevations, 2000 meters above the sea level. We invite you to enjoy a glass of Mexico's rich history.
